Have you heard of SB 299? If not, it's time to get informed and start lighting up emails and phone calls to your representative. SB 299 is legislation designed to eliminate no build zones along rivers and streams that feed our drinking water reservoirs. The "buffer" zone areas. There was suppose to be a hearing this past Tuesday Feb 4th on this bill. No action as of Feb. 5, had taken place so starting emailing and calling your representatives NOW ! Every year someone tries to get something like this passed. If we don't stay on top of this and LET OUR VOICES BE HEARD, eventually they might get their way. A Fishing Story... On Saturday January 25, 2014 a nice couple who belong to the

Rabun Chapter of Trout Unlimited came up for the weekend to relax a little and of course come to the Rendezvous !! Both holding down strenuous jobs in Savannah, they need their quite mountain time to renew their spirit and soul. On Saturday morning they had planned on doing a little trout fishing up on Burrell's Ford. But, they decided if they fished and ventured to far up stream they might miss the Rendezvous; and that was the last thing they wanted to do. But they did need that time on the river for a least a stroll. So they set off to Burrell's Ford . And fortunately for all of us they have big hearts. So much for rest and relaxing; instead they made sure those of us that did get to go fishing in the near future might enjoy our visit a little more. Thank you for spending your Saturday in the mountains doing some unscheduled volunteering.

To those that contributed to this garbage WHY? It don't take a whole lot of effort to haul out your own garbage. Do we need to go back to the commercial with the poor Indian crying on the side of the road? Clean it up!

One day we might be out of folks who will clean all this up willingly and you will have to fish and camp in your own mess.

BACK CASTING

On Thursday, January 16 Rabunites gathered at the TU / Scout Hut for our regular monthly meeting. Terry had a good showing of folks for fly tying, and our very own Kent Wilson gave us a program about fishing in Alaska. He offered lots of good information about locations, types of fish to be caught in each area and lodging choices. Kent apparently has a very understanding wife, because he has been many times and says he plans on going back many more times. You decide from the pictures what you could live with. Hugh stringers of fish or the lack of other conveniences.

Potty at one location. Care to guess why there is no door?

Kent received a print of a rainbow trout in appreciation for his presentation.

We had a great turnout at the meeting and a great presentation in January ! Hope you can join us this month !! We raised $112 to go towards mailing out the newsletter to those that don't have emails. Thanks for the donations Charlie Breithaupt, Terry Rivers, Kyle Burrell, Crawford Art Gallery, Frank Patton, Tim McClure and Ray Gentry.

The Rabun TU BOD met on Thursday, January 23 at 6:30 at the TU/Scout Hut. The main topic discussed and covered was the Rendezvous.

rabuntu.org

Did you know that the Rabun Chapter has an award winning web site? Awarded best web site in 2010 from TU National, it is full of information covering every aspect of our chapter and chapter happenings. As you begin your life as a trout fisherman or fisherwoman and a Rabunite, there are terms used only by Rabunites that are very important to learn so that you can listen and carry on conversations with other Rabunites. There will be a test somewhere down the road so study the terms hard !!

Notes from the President

The Georgia Cold Water Conservation Event of the Year!

Wow! What an event! If you weren't at the 2014 Rabun Rendezvous, then you missed an amazingly good time. The numbers are still coming in, but here are some preliminary results:

We had 297 adults and children in attendance. All Trout Unlimited Chapters in Georgia were represented with the exception of one; TU Chapters from South Carolina and North Carolina were represented; members of the Atlanta Fly Fishing Club, Georgia Women's Fly Fishers, Casting for Recovery, North Georgia Trout Online, the Boy Scouts of Troop 6, Ducks Unlimited, and Trout Camp alumni were there; and we had special guests from Project Healing Waters and the National office of Trout Unlimited.

We had an excellent selection of bucket raffle and silent auction items donated by a long list of very generous businesses, groups, and individuals. In addition, we had a special "Brook Trout" print by Broderick Crawford framed with flies tied by four of the best from Rabun TU, Kyle Burrell, Doug Adams, Jeff "Dredger" Durniak and Terry Rivers. The one of a kind piece was used in a lively – and successful! – live auction. Thank you to all our donors!

The Dillard House put out the spread of food that has made them famous world-wide, the Foxfire Boys played their outstanding bluegrass music to the delight of hillbillies and flatlanders alike, Injun Frank put up his teepee, and a good time was had by all.

While donation checks are still coming in and there are still a few more bills to be paid, it appears that we will net in the neighborhood of $14,500 from the 2014 Rabun Rendezvous! These funds will allow us to continue and build upon the good work being accomplished by the Rabun Chapter. In addition, we have planned several new ventures in 2014 to further our mission. Stay tuned for more details.

I would like to conclude by saying that this was our 27th annual Rabun Rendezvous. For the past 26 years, the event has always been coordinated by Doug Adams. Under Doug's leadership the Rendezvous has grown to where it is today. Doug is well deserving of our gratitude and appreciation for all he has done. Thank you, Old Man!

This year Doug asked to retire from these duties and take a well-deserved break. The Chapter was apprehensive on how to continue the tradition of the Rendezvous without Doug's coordination. However the Rabun Chapter is very fortunate to have members who are willing to "step up to the plate" and take on new roles and duties. This year's Rendezvous was coordinated under the leadership of Ray King. It was Ray's organizational, communication, and leadership skills that made this year's Rendezvous such a successful event. So on behalf of the Rabun Chapter and all the attendees of the event, I would like to thank Ray and his helpers for all the hard work they put into the 2014 Rabun Rendezvous!
